campaign, this year, is being watched by the entire country. Suffrage, too, adds another issue with an interest which isnational in its appeal. It will be the biggest election night in years-one of the greatest spectacles which you have ever had the opportunity of seeing from the top of a

Avenue Bus

Denial From Emil Klaessig

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The article published in The New York Tribune of October 21, headed their purpose. News Garbler Hearst," written by man names: George Viburg, Alexander Fuehr and Emil Klaessig." Assuming that I am the Emil Klaessig referred to, I beg to state that I have never been connected with the staff of the International News Service in any confidence of the Washington authorities.

"Our problem—As we are at war, we must so manage that the men who are fighting will have enough food and there shall be no lack of nourishment for our children and ourselves.

"Our solution is to eat more of some foods and less of others and waste noting.

"Bread of cereal—Corn, graham and ready are delicious. They are specially served in many clubs and the design of the city. Corn in various forms contains nourishing and heating the difficult to ship cornmeal, and it is a simple to dead what, on the other hand, sit is difficult to ship cornmeal, and it is a difficult to ship cornmeal, and it is a difficult to ship cornmeal, and it is a simple to difficult to ship cornmeal, and it is said mind to difficult to ship cornmeal, and that, although he had east of the corn, graham and rye bread the corn, graham and rye bread in the grant to difficult to ship cornmeal, and that, although he had the cheer cereals here as much as we possibly can. Corn, graham and rye bread the corn of him. It was found, also, that Minder the cheer cereals here as much as we possibly can. Corn, graham and rye bread the cut of the city. Corn of him. It was found, also, that Minder the cheer cereals here as much as we possibly can. Corn, graham and rye bread the cut of the city. Corn of him. It was found, also, that Minder the cheer cereals here as much as we possibly can. Corn, graham and rye bread the corn, graham and rye bread the corn of him. It was found, also, that Minder the cheer cereals here as much as we possibly can. Corn, graham and rye bread the corn, graham and rye bread

"Fats (butter, lard, etc.)—Do not use butter for cooking. When frying use elive and linseed oils. They give as satisfactory results as butter. Grown-up people find jam on their bread a very good substitute for butter. "Sugar—Our allies and our own men Ispecial Correspondence!

Grown-up people find jam on their bread a very good substitute for butter.

"Sugar—Our allies and our own men in Europe are in great need of sugar. Please use it therefore as economically as possible. Stir it well in your ten and coffee—a very frequent source of waste will then be eliminated and less sugar will be used.

"Vegetables and fruits—Through the generous response of the American people to the government's request that vegetables be grown during the last year in abundance, the market seems to be well supplied. This suggests in a very practical way the value of cooperstion in all these matters. Use vegetal correspondence!

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Henry Veeder, counsel for Swift & Co. and attorney for Louis F. Swift, father-in-law of Count James Minotto, will shoulder all the blame for the count's "faux pas" in making application for a position in enterties. Mr. Veeder said to-night that he felt responsible for the present troubles of the count. He says that Correspondence!

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Henry Veeder, counts of for Louis F. Swift, father-in-law of Count James Minotto, will shoulder all the blame for the count's "faux pas" in making application for a position in making application for a position in the intelligence bureau of the United States Navy.

Mr. Veeder said torrespondence!

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Henry Veeder, counts of for Louis F. Swift, father-in-law of Count James Minotto, will shoulder all the blame for the count's "faux pas" in making application for a position in making application for a position in the intelligence bureau of the United States Navy.

Mr. Veeder said to-night that he felt required to the count. He says that Count Minoton was a loyal, patriotic American people to the government's request that we count James Minotto, will shoulder all the blame for the count's "faux pas" in making application for a position in making application for a position in the intelligence bureau of the United States Navy.

Mr. Veeder said to-night that he felt required to the count many does not provide sufficient food to keep her prisoners of war in good health, nor sufficient clothing, the United States government is preparing, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, to feed all American soldiers and sallors who may be taken prisoners. The War and Navy departments are cooperating with the Red Cross is working out plans.

Last Custer Survivor Dies FARGO, N. D., Oct. 29.—Philip Hill, sixty-eight, a supply train driver for the American troops which met disaster on the prairies when Indians slew Custer's command, and who claimed to be the last living survivor of the Custer massacre, died this morning of heart disease.

New York Banker To Be Seized as

Arrest of Prominent American Financier Delayed by Order From Washington

Swift's Titled Son-in-Law Centre of German In-

This banker, together with Minotto Samuel Hopkins Adams, says on page von Seebeck, who is a son of General Edison Now Occupies 18, column 3, toward the bottom: "It von Seebeck, who commanded the 10th is interesting to observe that on the German Army Division at Verdun, and Dewey's Capital Office list of his International News Service Fritz Kuhn, a cousin of the wife of staff in New York appear these Ger- Supreme Court Justice Lehman, met

"Our problem-As we are at war, we Count Minotto May Be

Blame for Count Minotto

The count and his friends insist that also in all these matters. Use vegetables freely, as they cannot be shipped to Europe, and in part at least they take the place of wheat and meats.

"Make attractive dishes from the feeds that are plentiful and less expensive. To secure variety and timely suggestions call on the newspapers or nearest school for recipes. Above all, don't waste food in any form.

"Even if you are now managing your home advantageously and cannot save or substitute, become a member of the administration."

America to Feed Men

Captured by Germany

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—As Germany does not provide sufficient food

The count and his friends insist that the will be cleared of all charges that he is guilty of pro-German activities.

"Count Minotto's action in first applying for a position with the government was taken at the instance of American friends," Mr. Veeder said. "The fact that he knew a half dozen the suggestion was taken at the instance of American friends," Mr. Veeder said. "The fact that he knew a half dozen the suggestion was taken at the instance of American friends," Mr. Veeder said. "The fact that he knew a half dozen was taken at the instan

Last Custer Survivor Dies

Daudet Under Guard; "The Call" Begins Public Is Displeased

Editor Not Permitted to Leave Ally of Minotto His Home; Search for Evidence of Plot Continues PARIS, Oct. 29. The police search for evidence concerning a supposed royalist plot was continued to-day. Leon Daudet, editor of the royalist organ "L'Action Française," whose offices were searched yesterday, was not door to see that he did not receive reporters, a host of whom were there. In the residence of M. Daudet and Charles Maurras, co-director of the newspaper, further documents and mis-Had Met Bernstorff door to see that he did not receive re-cellaneous weapons were found.

M. Daudet ridiculed the whole affair,

"We believe that every one of our

Inventor, Running True to Form, Getting One Hour's Sleep a Day

Peace Issue at Newark Polls

Of Misusing Mails

First Instalment Denies Wrongdoing in Publication of War News

newspaper, further documents and mis- denied mailing privileges. The editors

A prominent New York banker's arrest as the accomplice of Count James Minotto, son-in-law of Louis F. Swift, millionaire packer of Chicago, and his Corporate to the royalist agitation. Gustave Hervé, in "La Victoire," cays:

M. Daudet ridiculed the whole affair, saying all he could do was to thank the government for giving his newspaper readers is entitled to the entire story of a case which is destined to become an historic one in the long struggle in the press, deprecates the government's action, regarding it ill-advised, inasmuch as it lends exaggerated importance to the royalist agitation. Gustave Hervé, in "La Victoire," cays:

"It is at a moment when every one is by the postofice, and hope to be able millionaire packer of Chicago, and his German associates. Fritz Kuhn and Baron George von Seebeck, is predicted by Federal officials.

This banker is known to have had relations with the three, all now under arrest, Kuhn and von Seebeck as enemy aliens, and Minotto on suspicion of being a German agent.

The banker, an American citizen, is prominent socially in this city, and while Secret Service agents started out on Friday night last to arrest him, for some reason not made known they returned without having accomplished their purpose.

This banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker, together with Minotto, you Seebeck who is a son of German.

The banker of the traitors and agents to fit the traitors and agents to print the entire list of 'offences.'"

The banker is known to have had and shot that the government atracks of of every alleged violation of the esponsacy and purpose and offence of spreading alarmis reports concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who was concerning M. Malvy (former Minister of the Interior, who Representative Clyde H. Tavenner, asserting that private firms are making from 20 to 60 per cent more on war munitions than it would have cost government arsenals to furnish them.

"It must be borne in mind," The Call's attorney says, "that these statements are quoted from 'The Congressional Record,' which is an official document. It certainly cannot be maintained that 'The Congressional Record' contains metter advocating or urging treason, insurrection or forcible resistence to the United States."

Denmark to Kill Swine

that I am the Emil Klaessig referred to, I beg to state that I have never been connected with the staff of the banker was delayed on the request of the Washington authorities.

That action may be expected any pacity whatsoever, that I have never written a line or done any kind ow were received a cent from that organization; wherefore I respectfully request that in the sense of justice and fair play you publish this my denial of connection with the International Prominence that the article of Mr. Adams gave to my name.

For the information of The Tribune, also, I beg to state that for twelve years prior to the entrance of the war representative of the Berlin news agency, known as the Wolff Telegraph Bureau, supplying that agency, as an American newspaper man, with American newspaper man, w COPENHAGEN, Oct. 29.—The Danish government Food Council, after considering the growing difficulties of supplying the home population with an adequate ration of fats, has rejected the proposed prohibition upon the export of swine. Three hundred thousand swine will be slaughtered and reserved for the population of the towns, farmers being permitted to kill swine for their own use, and the rest will be available for export. It is stated that both Germany and England have expressed themselves as satisfied with this arrangement.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Further investigation into the workings of the Day Nursery of the Divine Providence, 76 Locust Hill Avenue, which was

To vote for Mitchel and the entire Fusion Ticket, put a cross (x) in the square | to the right of each and every Bull's Eye on

Don't rub out or otherwise erase your ballot. If you make a mistake, return your ballot and ask for a new one. You are entitled

Brooklyn

Richmond

- Queens

Bronx

Vote for the Fusion

Board of Estimate For Mayor John Purroy Mitchel

President Board Aldermen For Comptroller Wm. G. Prendergast Robert W. Adamson

For Borough President Marcus M. Marks - Manhattan Lewis H. Pounds Thomas W. Whittle Frank S. Gannon, Jr.

Robert W. Higbie -

FUSION COMMITTEE OF 1917

Cabet Summoned to Court Ready to Enforce Attack on Liberty Loan

Reply to Charges Socialist Must Explain Alleged Alien Property Law

Attack on Liberty Loan

Adolph Cabet, Socialist candidate for aiderman from the 28th Aldermanic District, The Bronx, was summoned yesterday to appear before Judge McGeehan in the 8th District police court this morning to explain remarks he is credited with making concerning the Liberty Loan. This action is the outcome of an investigation by the American Defence Society.

"This is not a Liberty Loan, but a slavery loan," is one remark attributed to Cabet. "We are asked to buy bonds which the government never expects to redeem."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Arrangements were made to-day at a conference between President Wilson and A.

the enemy law for custody of property in this country of German citizens and those of countries allied with Ger-

Receipt of enemy property already

Receipt of enemy property already has begun, the first receipts being a draft for $100,000 voluntarily tendered the custodian, who promptly invested in Liberty bonds.

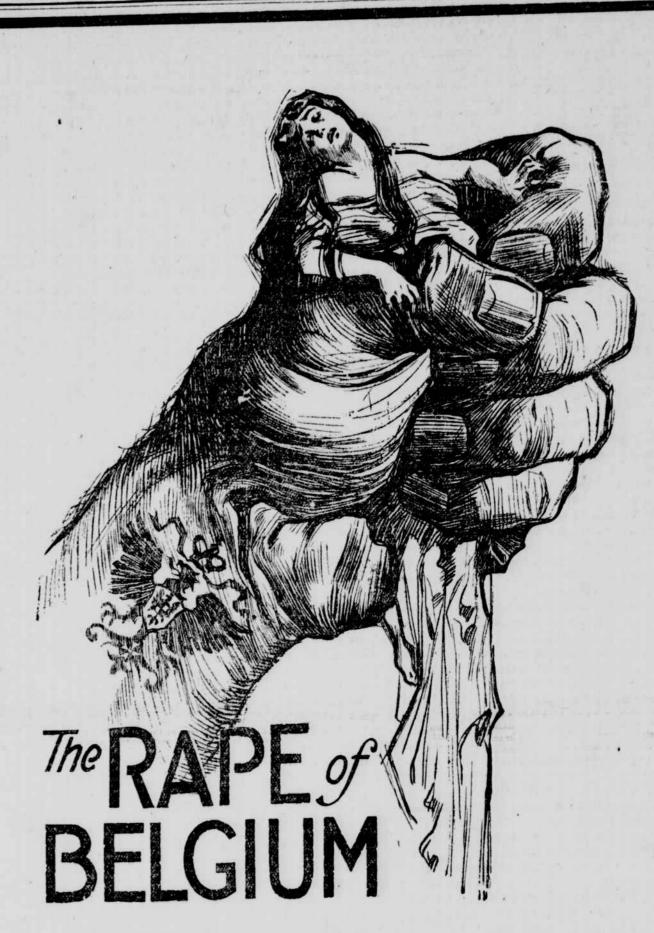

Administrative details were arranged to-day, and within a short time property worth millions of dollars will be in the custodian's hands. President Wilson soon will issue an executive order formally conferring the requisite powers upon Mr. Palmer, who will furnish a fidelity bond in the sum of $100.000. The order also will authorize expenditure on appropriations, including engagement of necessary assistants and opening of branch bureaus for receipt of enemy property.

f enemy property.

Mr. Palmer said after the conference tinople.

with the President that he was preparing to enforce the law as it stands for taking over property of citizens of nations allied with Germany, as well as that of Germans. He explained that the President might suspend the law's operation as to property of Turkish, Bulgarian, Austrian and other allied citizens whose nations are not at war with the United States, although that question had not been discussed.
Ultimate disposition of property taken over by his office, Mr. Palmer explained, rests with Congress.

Bernstorff Gets New Title AMSTERDAM, Oct. 29 .- Count von Bernstorff, the former Ambassador to the United States, has been made a "Wirklicher Geheimrat" by the German Emperor, with the title of excellency. The count is Ambassador to Constan-

HUGH GIBSON, first Secretary of our Legation in Brussels, now that the ban of American neutrality is lifted, is able to give us for the first time his own personal diary of Germany's occupation of Belgium.

From his close-up position in the wings he watched the setting of the historic stage, the dramatic rise of the curtain, and then the full sweep of the fear-

HUGH GIBSON make you live over with him

-witnessed King Albert's great speech of defiance. -took over the German Legation when war was de-

-was in Louvain during the burning and pillaging of this city. -passed many times through the firing lines between the Germans and Belgians with American dispatches.

-was in Brussels when the Germans entered. -had all manner of official and unofficial dealings with the Germans. —had many opportunities to see King Albert both in the field under shell fire and behind the lines.

-spent 48 hours trying to save Miss Cavell. He argued, pleaded, and finally threat-ened, without effect.

that has appeared since Europe burst into flames. If you but read the opening entries vou'll want to follow it through day by day as it appears. It is going to give you some mighty enjoyable reading, so don't miss the beginning. Order your Tribune for next Sunday ahead of time and you won't be disappointed.

ful tragedy. His day by day jottings simply but graphically

the dynamic happenings of those unreal days. Gibson's diary, prosaically titled "A Journal From Our Legation in Belgium," begins publication

in The Tribune of Sunday,

November 4th. It is perhaps the most gripping narrative

New York Tribune

Commencing Sunday, November 4th

DAILY

SUNDAY